Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow:

There was a tiny fishing village located on the shores of the sea in Japan. Near the village was a mountain owned by a very generous old man called Hamaguchi. He lived atop the hill with his grandson, Yoshi. Hamaguchi knew that the villagers had no place to grow food so he allowed them to grow rice on the slopes of the hill. Yoshi loved to help the villagers on the fields. One day, after everyone had gone back home Yoshi too headed home. He saw his grandfather standing solemn and still outside their house, simply staring into the sea. Something was wrong. Yoshi called out to his Grandfather but got no answer. He called again. This time grandfather looked up suddenly, as if coming out of a trance. "Hurry. Follow me and do as I say," said Hamaguchi to Yoshi. Yoshi followed him into the house. Hamaguchi went to the fire place, grabbed a burning stick. He asked Yoshi to do the same. Yoshi was totally confused but he did as he was told. Both ran out into the fields with the burning sticks. Then Hamaguchi threw his stick into the rice field and ordered Yoshi to do the same. Yoshi was aghast. But he obeyed. Soon the fields were ablaze. Then they heard a rumbling sound. It was the villagers, who on seeing their fields on fire were running up with buckets of water. When they reached the top, it was too late. The fields were engulfed with fire from all sides. "Why did you destroy our fields?" asked the villagers angrily. Hamaguchi simply bowed his head and pointed to the sea. The villagers turned to look. They saw a giant wall of water rise from the sea. It was becoming higher and higher and was rolling towards their village. Before they could think of anything it had struck the village, smashing everything ---- their houses, boats, docks and stores. The anger soon turned into shouts of relief, "He saved us! He has saved us from a tsunami." Yoshi now understood that sometimes cruelty could be the greatest act of kindness.

निम्निखित अनुच्छेद को पढ़ें और दिए गए प्रश्नों के उत्तर दें:
जापान में समुद्र तट पर एक छोटा सा मछली पकड़ने वाला गांव
स्थित था। गांव के पास एक पहाड़ था जिसका स्वामित्व हमागुची
नामक एक बहुत ही उदार बूढ़े आदमी के पास था। वह अपने
पोते योशी के साथ पहाड़ी के ऊपर रहता था। हमागुची जानता था
कि ग्रामीणों के पास भोजन उपजाने के लिए कोई जगह नहीं थी,
इसलिए उसने, उनको पहाड़ी की ढलानों पर चावल उगाने की
अनुमित दे दी। योशी खेतों में ग्रामीणों की मदद करना पसंद
करते थे। एक दिन, सभी के वापस चले जाने के बाद योशी भी
घर की ओर जा रहा था। उसने अपने दादा को अपने घर के बाहर
गंभीर और स्थिर होकर, बस समुद्र की ओर घूरते हुए देखा। कुछ
न कुछ गलत था। योशी ने अपने दादा को बुलाया लेकिन जवाब
नहीं मिला। उसने फिर से बुलाया। इस बार दादा ने अचानक से
उसकी ओर इस प्रकार से देखा, जैसे कि वह बेहोशी से बाहर आ
रहे हैं।

"जल्दी करो। मेरे पीछे आओ और जैसा मैं कहता हूं, वैसे करों।" हमाग्ची ने योशी से कहा। योशी ने उसका घर में पीछा किया। हमाग्ची आग वाली जगह पर गए, एक जलती हुई छड़ी पकड़ ली। उन्होंने योशी से ऐसा करने के लिए कहा। योशी पूरी तरह उलझन में था लेकिन वैसा ही किया जैसा कि उसे कहा गया था। दोनों जलती हुई छड़ों के साथ खेतों की तरफ भागने लगे। हमागुची ने चावल के खेत में अपनी जलती हुई छड़ी फेंक दी और योशी को भी ऐसा करने का आदेश दिया। योशी ट्याक्ल था। परंत् उसने आज्ञा मानी। शीघ्र ही खेतों में आग लग गई। फिर उन्होंने घडघडाहट वाली आवाज सुनी। यह ग्रामीण थें, जो अपने खेतों में आग लगी देखकर, पानी की बाल्टी लिए दौड़ रहे थें। जब वे चोटी पर पहुंचे तो बहुत देर हो चुकी थी। खेत, सभी तरफ से आग के शोलों से घिरे हुए थे। ग्रामीणों ने गुस्सा से पूछा, "तुमने हमारे खेतों को क्यों नष्ट कर दिया?" हमाग्ची ने बस अपना सिर झ्काया और सम्द्र की ओर इशारा किया। ग्रामीणों देखने के लिए जैसे ही मुड़े, उन्होंने समुद्र से पानी की एक विशाल दीवार उठती हुई देखी। यह उच्च से उच्चतर हो रही थी और उनके गांव की ओर बढ़ रही थी। इससे पहले कि वे कुछ भी सोच सकें, इसने गांव में, सबक्छ तोड़ दिया ---- उनके घर, नाव, गोदी और स्टोर को निगल लिया। क्रोध, जल्द ही राहत की चिल्लाहटों में बदल गया। "उसने हमें बचाया! उसने हमें स्नामी से बचाया है।"

योशी अब समझ गए कि कभी-कभी क्रूरता, दयालुता का सबसे बड़ा रूप हो सकती है।

Read the paragraph carefully and answer the question given below it:

One of the important humanitarian by-products of technology is the greater dignity and value that it imparts to human labour. In a highly industrialized society, there is no essential difference between Brahmin and Dalit, Muslim and Hindu; they are equally useful and hence equally valuable, for in the industrial society individual productivity fixes the size of the pay cheque and this fixes social status.

This passage best supports the statement that:

Options:

- Technology decides individual's social status.
- Castes and religions are man-made.
- Human labour has dignity and value.
- All individuals, irrespective of caste and creed, are born equal.

Most people have a general idea about what they want for their lives. The capacity to relay that vision to others is the real challenge. This is something that sets apart a leader from the rest, and if you want success in your life, you need to become a focused leader. The main quality that all leaders share is that they have a clear and exciting vision for the future, as well as possess the ability to communicate that vision. Only a leader can think about the future and plan for the future each day. Hence, it is ideal to mold your activities in a manner that helps you evolve as a successful personality. To begin the process, you must know how to communicate your vision. Excellent leaders take some time to think and develop a clear picture of how their life will look in one, three or five year increments. They have the ability to disseminate their idea of a successful life that others buy in. Eventually, others see the vision as belonging to them. You can also motivate people to give their best by simply communicating your vision to others. Basically, it is the vision of the future possibilities that arouses emotion and encourages people, your team or fellow colleagues to drive results. Always remember that the most powerful vision is always qualitative, aimed at and described in terms of values and mission. It should never be described in terms of money and numbers. Of course, money is important. But, the commitment towards being the best in the business or any other task is far more exciting. Another key to leadership success is to keep your cool. A study examined the qualities that companies look for in promoting young managers toward senior executive positions, especially the position of Chief Executive Officer. It concluded that there are two important qualities required for great success. The first is the ability to put together and function as part of a team. In an organizational setting, all work is ultimately done by teams. The output of a manager is the output of the team. The ability to select team members, set objectives, delegate responsibility and finally, get the job done is central to success in management. The second leadership quality is the ability to function well under pressure, especially in a crisis situation. Practically speaking, it is these critical moments, when the actual character and quality of a leader is demonstrated. Everyone is watching you, observing and taking notes of your behavior. This why you should keep your cool and focus on what you want. Eventually, all the blaming stuff would get neglected, and you will evolve as a shining leader.
